Additional customer features including online ordering are scheduled to be added in the upcoming months as DuraPlaq continually strives to provide remarkable customer service, superior product quality, and an expanding product line.

Take Note of the Following When Ordering :

ORDER INFORMATION:

In submitting an order with DuraPlaq, your acceptance to the terms and conditions is implied. For additional information or to view the terms and conditions please reference the DuraPlaq™ website at www.duraplaq.com or contact our customer service team to get a copy of the current terms and conditions.

SHIPPING COSTS:

As shipping charges are derived from order contents & destination, shipping will be added to order total upon shipping. Please contact customer service team if a shipping estimate is needed prior to shipping.

FREIGHT SHIPMENTS :

As freight shipment pricing is based on multiple factors, please provide the following information so that the pricing is appropriately calculated upon shipment processing and billing. Any omitted or false information may result in additional freight charges being billed to your account.

- Is the Address Residential or Commercial (Please Include Type of Business)?
- What type of facility is the delivery location? Hospital, Conference Center, Construction Site, Church, Farm, Etc.
- Does the recipient location have limited access or can a 53' semi access the location successfully?
- Do you expect the shipment to be brought inside?
- Is an appointment needed for delivery? Redelivery charges will apply if recipient is not available upon delivery.
- Is a lift gate required to remove the pallet from the truck or will there be a forklift or commercial dock with pallet jack available to remove the pallet from the truck?

SHIPPING TERMS & CONDITIONS :

Before you or your customer signs for a DuraPlaq™ shipment, please immediately inspect the outside of the packaging for any potential damage to the box or contents before signing for the shipment with the shipping carrier. If any damage occurs to the exterior packaging during shipping, the shipment must be noted as damaged with the carrier or the contents inspected and accepted by the recipient prior to signing for the package. Signing for a delivery without noting any potential damage is acceptance of the package and contents in its current condition upon arrival. This is requirement is additionally noted on the exterior of each shipment as a reminder when receiving a shipment. DuraPlaq will do everything possible to assist you in any damage claim however DuraPlaq will not be held responsible for loss or damage that has not been noted with the shipping entity upon delivery.

Have questions?

Feel free to contact our customer service representatives at 800-991-7527 or by email at plaqit@duraplaq.com.

Prepping Your Files For Printing?

For the best resolution and end product, please submit image files in 8 opr 16 bit format with Adobe 98. For optimal print resolution, files should maintain 300 dpi or 600 dpi at the desired print size in tiff, jpeg, psd, or psb format. Please make sure you note any required image file sizes for preset size products.

Custom Size, Custom Price?

DuraPlaq believes in offering customization as a standard! Unless it's a preset sized product, there's no need to compromise or crop your image! All of our products are custom created to the size you want (rounded to the nearest 1/8"). To determine a DuraPlaq price, add the listed product price (rounding up for sizes in between listed square inch sizes) and any associated print cost (determined at the exact square inch size if not specifically included).

Want to see what it looks like?

Get inspired! Check out our website for additional product information & images. Website features include hanging & care instructions, edge color previews, & more!
